WHO SAYS THE EARTH CAN'T
FEED HER PEOPLE?

Twice the world's present population can be fed thru the use of scientific farming methods, according to Dr. Charles E. Kellogg, chief of the soil survey division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Taking issue with those he says scare each other with "frantic tales of the world's dwindling food supply," Kellogg is confident the world has the soil and knowledge to raise more than enough food. It will not be done easily and probably not in time to insure peace, however, he warns. Without enough food, peace is extremely unlikely, he adds.

Nearly half the world's land area must be discounted as not fitted for farming, according to the soils expert in an article in Successful Farming magazine. This includes the ice regions at the poles, high mountain terrain and desert areas. Some of the remaining soil is too wet, salty, stony, sandy or hilly to use.

Much of the land now regarded as unsuitable, however, could be made useful by drainage or other improvement, he maintains.

The larger part of the good soil in temperate regions like the United States and Europe is now farmed. Not all of it is being used, however. If the region of acid soils, called the podzol soils, were developed as much as 10 per cent, we could gain another 300,000,000 acres of cropland, Kellogg says.

The world today has less than 2,000,000,000 acres of cropland. The podzol soils have been fairly well developed in Finland and parts of Scandinavia. Only about one per cent is used much for crops because of the wet, sandy or stony soil. In addition, the areas are not easily reached and industry is nearly non-existent.

Tropical soils are more important. Altho small spots are crowded, great areas in Africa, South America and tropical islands scarcely are used at all. If we could count on 20 per cent of this soil, along with the soils of tropical stream bottoms, we could add another billion acres, according to Kellogg.

We could add one and a third billion acres to our cropland, not counting further irrigation of dry lands, he says. The job is not easy. New land must be cleared. Roads must be built. Electric power, medical facilities and industry would have to go along with agriculture. Fertilizers, lime and careful management would be needed on nearly all of it from the start.

With experience in Finland and the Philippines as a guide, Kellogg says pre-war supplies of cereals and milk could be nearly doubled by using the new land. Roots and tubers, sugars, fats and oils, fruits and vegetables should be more than doubled. Large increases could be made in the other main items. Moreover, all these new acres would not be needed to meet the goal.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has estimated the increased production which would be practical for farmers on land already under cultivation. Sugar could be increased 15 per cent, fruits and vegetables 35 per cent, roots and tubers 50 per cent and other items 20 per cent.

Kellogg emphasizes that scientific farming in the tropics must be paralleled by development of industry. Fortunately, many tropical areas have great resources of power. The difficulties stem from native poverty and lack of schools more than from soil and climate. Modern medical facilities, drainage systems and air conditioning would change living conditions completely.

If we really want to feed the world, Kellogg says the following seven steps should be taken at once:

1. Increase fertilizer production, especially in famine regions.
2. Make wider distribution of seeds and plants of improved higher-yielding varieties.
3. Expand irrigation on suitable soils.
4. Develop hydro-electric power sources, especially in the tropics.
5. Control diseases and insects.
6. Distribute farm machinery where it is badly needed.
7. Educate foreign farmers with simple, easy-to-understand pamphlets.

12 Persons Enroll
In Instructors
First Aid Course

Howard Reynolds, first aid and accident prevention chairman for the Morgan County Red Cross chapter, reports that up to the present time 12 physical education instructors, teachers, leaders of youth groups and students have registered for the instructor's course in Red Cross first aid to be conducted Nov. 8-12 under the direction of Irvin Simone, field representative from National Red Cross headquarters.

Mr. Reynolds stated this will probably be the only class given in the local chapter for the next two years because of the shortage of National Red Cross field representatives.

The class for the instructor's first aid course will be held in the Red Cross office, Gibson building, East Morgan street, Monday through Friday nights, 7-10 o'clock. Young men and women who expect to be counselors or teachers in boys' and girls' camps during the summer months and have completed the advanced first aid course during the past year will receive much benefit from this training. Persons who have taken the instructor's course during the past two or three years and have since completing the work, given junior, standard and advanced Red Cross first aid courses are welcome to renew their instructor's certificate or audit the classes. SIGNS OF LITERATURE IN ROME

Rome.—(AP)—In an ancient palace on Rome's Via Della Mercede, Sir Walter Scott once resided and wrote. The information-education section of the American Army put up a wooden sign inviting the attention of culture-minded GIs to that fact. Some time ago an unidentified person crawled across the top of the sign. "England's greatest writer," recently some loyal son of Caladonia had amended the super-scription to read: "Scotland's greatest writer."

Carrollton Girl Scouts Have 11th Birthday Party

Carrollton — The 11th annual birthday party of the Carrollton Girl Scouts, held in observance of National Girl Scout Week, took place Wednesday evening in the dining room of the Presbyterian church.

The girls were guests of the Girl Scout committee at a dinner planned by Mrs. J. J. Alfred, Mrs. Wesley Carpunky and Mrs. Carroll Tapp. The tables were attractive in the green and white Scout colors with each girl having a tiny birthday candle attached to her place card. The table decorations were done by the girls of the Intermediate Scout troop and the Brownies.

Following dinner the colors were presented with Ronald Byland as the flag bearer and Tommy Maberry and Hal Brook as the color guards. All three are members of the local Boy Scout troop.

The program consisted of graduation ceremonies and the presentation of badges. A group of girls graduated from the Intermediate group into the Senior Scout group; a group of Brownies became Intermediate scouts; and a group of girls were also received into the Brownies.

AUTOMOTIVE HINT

Sometimes worn bearings in the starting motor cause the armature to rub. This can be ascertained without removing the motor by holding a small piece of iron or steel against the outside of the housing while someone steps on the starter button. If the gauge is attracted to the housing, the armature is rubbing.

The deceased was born in Jersey county July 28, 1872, and died here Friday at 9:35 a. m. at Mary's Nursing Home. He was 76 years.

He is survived by his widow, Anna Long; one son, William Warren Long of Jerseyville; and two sisters, Miss Anna Long of Jerseyville and Mrs. Neil Gleespin of Iowa.

The deceased was well known to the older rural residents of Jersey county, having followed the work of an engineer of the steam thrasher outfits before the advent of the present combines. He worked at the steam thrashing work for a half century.

Bond Of Alleged Confidence Man Fixed At $10,000

Joseph Francis Reddish, charged with working a confidence game to obtain possession of a new Studebaker automobile, was bound over to the grand jury Friday afternoon in the court of Justice C. S. Smith. His bond was fixed at $10,000.

The defendant was taken to the county jail in default of bond.

Reddish was returned to this city from Kansas by Sheriff Ralph Bourn and Deputy John Irlam, after his arrest in that state. The automobile said to have been in Reddish's possession was driven to this city by Warren Jones, an employee of the Walker Motor Company.

The defendant had been the object of search for several months after he is alleged to have given a worthless check and made other alleged misrepresentations in obtaining a car from the Walker company.

Reddish waived preliminary examination when taken before the justice of the peace.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(P)—Hogs ended a week of declining prices by selling nominally steady today. Quotations ranged from $24.00 to $24.50. Cattle and sheep also were nominally steady.

Although there was a possibility of ceilings being re-imposed on livestock as a result of Tuesday's election, this did not appear to have any influence on the livestock trade this week. The major factor in the hog decline was a fairly wide break in wholesale pork prices.

In the wholesale meat trade pork loins dropped $5.00. Boston butts $4.00 and fresh regular pork trimmings $8.00.

Steady to higher prices ruled in the cattle section for the week. Common grass fed steers made up a smaller percentage of the run than in any week of the current season. Major exception to the advance was medium and good shorted steers, which ended about 50 cents lower.

With the Atlantic seaboard wanting lamb, prices in the sheep section advanced for the week. Slaughter lambs closed $1.00 higher with the top $25.50.

Still dominating the market, according to financial quarters, is widespread apprehension over what effect the policies of the new administration will have on present high business profits.

While this factor tended to block buying interest, brokers said that the market had regained, at least for the time being, a degree of stability.

Among the gainers at one time were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Studebaker, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, Distillers Corp., General Electric, Santa Fe and Standard Oil (N.J.).

Laggards included U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward and American Telephone.

Bonds moved narrowly.

Decatur Given Its First Defeat Of Season By Pekin

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 6.—(P)—Pekin grabbed sole possession of the Big 12 Conference title and Monmouth, Pana and Hamilton fell from the undefeated, untied ranks in downstate prep football games Friday.

By a narrow 13-12 margin, Pekin's Chinks dealt once tied Decatur its first setback of the season to finish league play with five wins and no losses. The triumph was the Chinks' eighth straight against all competition following an inaugural defeat by Monmouth.

Galesburg ended the 1948 campaign with a 27-13 victory over Monmouth, whose Zippers were handicapped by the absence of injured halfback, Willard Rollins, their pointmaking star. Monmouth had capped all seven previous decisions.

Carthage extends streak. Hamilton's perfect seven game chart was ruined 14-0 by Carthage, which extended an identical slate through eight outings.

In a tussle for the Midstate loop crown, Hillsboro's Hilltoppers halted Pana 14-6 after eight triumphs in a row.

Besides Carthage, other unstoppable outfits that rolled along to new conquests were West Aurora, Pittsfield, Farmington and Polo.

West Aurora's 14-12 success over tough Elgin was No. 8 and moved the Aurorans another step toward the Big Eight circuit flag. Pittsfield's 25-7 win over White Hall and Polo's 32-0 triumph over Hononegah of Rockton kept the winners abreast of the Aurora team in the victory department.

East St. Louis Wins. Dunlap bowed to Farmington 20-12 as the Farmers stretched their flawless slate to nine games.

A scoreless tie with Trinity of Bloomington clinched an undisputed Cornbelt championship for Normal University High, whose Pioneers trucked away their moleskins without a league reverse.

One of the night's biggest power displays was staged by Moline's Northwest circuit pennant winners who ran up a 48-7 count against Clinton, Ia.

Down south, Flora's North Egypt crown wearers wound up their season's play by conquering Olney 20-0 and East St. Louis pulled into a tie with Belleville for southwestern loop leadership with a 14-0 victory over Granite City.

It's good to see Jacksonville high school back on the victory trail. They were favored to beat Havana. In fact, they probably had more trouble than had been anticipated. But all reports from the northern city indicate that the Crimson spirit was high and that they showed improvement after their layoff.

Waverly put on quite an offensive show against Diverson.

Although John Burnell, Don Peters, Elbert Mitchell and Ernie Turner did all the scoring, Waverly fans seemed most elated over the showing of LaVern Love, a junior who played his first game of football.

He reeled off two long runs in the fourth quarter and probably would have gotten a touchdown himself had it not been for a holding penalty.

Burnell is really coming into his own in the backfield. A 1947 M.S.M. all-conference tackle, he was moved to fullback on offense this season.

He still plays in the forward wall on defense, however.

Coach Glen Smith of Pittsfield had three regulars on the sidelines during the Saukees' Friday night battle at White Hall. Not once this season has Smith fielded his regular first eleven for a game.

According to an article in a recent issue of Future, Junior Chamber of Commerce publication, the average yearly sports bill of each adult in the United States is $194. That sum is startling, to say the least. It reflects the increasing importance of recreation in the American way of living.

The same issue of the magazine has a short item concerning the erection of a sports building by a western J-C organization. The story states that the building will seat 3,000 persons for sports events. It's being built for $65,000. Of course, there's considerable volunteer labor.

But it still seems unlikely that a new high school gymnasium would cost in the neighborhood of a million dollars, the price estimated here.

Bill Chipman, Jacksonville sports scribe, informs that "Buzz" Davis, Jacksonville quarterback, staged an impressive aerial show in the Panthers' game against Roadhouse.

He completed 13 of 16 tosses for an 812 average. One pass was good for a touchdown and four added extra points. Six of the aerials were thrown to blue-fingered Jim Waggoner, one of the Illinois Valley conference's outstanding ends.

Fans in Jerseyville, who have gone all out in supporting one of the best grid teams in their high school's history, are looking forward to their second annual Panther Booster banquet. It will be served Tuesday, Nov. 23, and the entire team will be guests of the fans. Mel Brewer, University of Illinois freshman coach, will be the guest speaker.

Star: Heath, Nevada pass-chucking sensation, is the son of Mickey Heath, former major league baseball star. He is listed in programs as being from Menominee Falls, Wis., but he says Reno is his home. He is married.

Exclusive of Saturday's game against Iowa, the University of Illinois gridiron club had some impressive figures in Big Nine averages. Their passing attack is third best and their punting is tops in the loop.

This is written prior to Saturday afternoon's game, so its safe to say at this time that a Ray Eliot-coached eleven has never been beaten by Iowa. Eliot took command of the Illini in 1942 and his team won 12-7. In 1943 it was 19-10. In 1944 40-6. In 1945 48-7. In 1946 7-0 and in 1947 35-12.

That's 231 points to 42 for the Hawkeyes.

Jacksonville high school and Illinois School for the Deaf stage their annual end-of-the-season grid encounter at the J.H.S. field Thursday afternoon. The afternoon game is traditional and the two schools agreed to return to a daylight contest this season despite the presence of arcs at the northside plant.

The big advantage to such a plan lies in better weather for the on-lookers, who, in a normal year, might be a bit cool Armistice Day night. It doesn't appear that the temperature will cause much trouble this season, however.

Basketball information is beginning to move into the Journal-Courier Sports department in a constant flow. Beginning within the next few days these pages will be crowded with stories on the 25 or 30 teams in this area. Schedules of each outfit will be published. We've held up on some of the early arrivals, waiting for the football season to near an end before pushing the indoor sport into the limelight.

All Grains Open Up Strong, Then Go Into Decline

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(P)—The grain market was not very successful today in trying to extend its post election advance into the fourth straight session. All cereals opened strong, July and September wheat hitting new seasonal highs, but prices slumped toward the close.

Corn showed the easiest undertone in the closing minutes. In part this was based on a lower trend in the cash market. Commercial interests were said to have bought nearly all the high moisture corn they want for drying purposes at this time.

Buying of 1,008,000 bushels of wheat overnight by Italy gave the bread cereal some support. That country still has 336,000 bushels to buy to complete fourth quarter allocations. It was estimated France bought between 400,000 and 600,000 bushels of soybeans this week.

Week-end evening up operations and profit-taking following three day of advancing prices had some influence in sending prices lower shortly before the close.

Wheat ended 1-5 higher, December $2.30-31; corn was 1/2 lower to 1 higher, December $1.40-1-1/2; oats were 1/2 lower to 1 higher, December 79-1-1/2; rye was 1/2 to 2 cents lower, December $1.80; soybeans were 1/2 lower to 1 cent higher, November $2.55-$2.55, and 27 to 47 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $18.75.

Receipts were wheat 10; corn 446; oats 12; rye 12; barley 21 and soybeans 61.

Lake Forest Defeats Blueboys Saturday With Big Second Half

Lake Forest, Ill., (Special) — Illinois college's crippled Blueboys showed surprising offensive strength here Saturday afternoon, but three costly mishaps set up a trio of second half Lake Forest touchdowns to give the host eleven a 26-13 College Conference of Illinois victory.

For the first time since the Illinois Wesleyan university game in Jacksonville three weeks ago, the Blueboys carried the drive and spirit which showed them to four consecutive early-season victories.

7-7 At Half
Each team scored once in the second quarter and the two outflits left the field at intermission in a 7-7 deadlock. Things happened fast in the third quarter, however.

L.C.'s erratic punting finally had a telling effect early in the third period. A blocked punt gave Lake Forest their first big break. A 15-yard penalty at an inopportune moment and a fumble put the visitors in bad spots later in the tilt and set up subsequent touchdowns for the home team.

The game was especially costly to the visitors. Just beginning to show signs of recovery from crippling backfield losses, the Blueboys saw one of their key linemen, Don Longer, carted off the field with a severe shoulder separation. It will keep him out of the Blueboys' last two contests.

Save Up For Elmhurst
It was apparent to the few Jacksonville fans who made the long trip to see their favorites in action that the visitors weren't going all out for a victory today, despite the closeness of the first half. Art Wilson, diminutive Blueboy speedster, wasn't used at all, and Big Joe Hill, playing with one shoulder strapped down, saw only limited offensive service.

With the exception of Longer, the Jacksonville outfit should be at full strength for its home finale against the Elmhurst aggregation next Saturday afternoon.

The score Saturday doesn't tell the story. L.C.'s defense was just about as good as ever, and the offense was far better than even most partisan fans had dared expect.

Top In First Downs
The Blueboys racked up 14 first downs to nine for the hosts. But the three breaks gave Lake Forest splendid opportunities. Giving credit where it is due, it must be said that the hosts didn't waste any of their chances.

McAllister, quarterback, and Baracani, fullback, were red hot on the attack and they caused plenty of grief for Coach Al Miller's fighting band of downstarts.

The home team drew first blood. Cozens, a halfback, dashed 24 yards in a quick-opening play after a drive which included several first downs. McCormick kicked his first of four successful points after touchdown.

First I.C. Counter
But the Blueboys came back to tie the count by halftime. It was a long pass to Ralph Christison, who replaced Longer, which set up the tally. Joe Hill concluded a series of running plays by smashing over from the eight yard line.

That was all in the first half. Lake Forest added to its lead in the third quarter. Jones recovered the blocked punt on the I.C. four. One play later, Baracani crossed the goal line on a short plunge.

A long pass, McAllister to Halfback Meyer, accounted for another Lake Forest counter before the Blueboys could get their breath.

Gross Tallyes
The third quarter also saw one last futile effort by the visitors. Bill Gross crossed into the end zone on a 15-yard gallop, but a pass from Billings intended for Scheller was no good on the try for extra point and the Blueboys had ended their scoring.

Lake Forest got one insurance marker in the fourth quarter. McAllister chucked a 5-yard aerial to Vaneyk in the end zone.

Swiss Team Takes Lead In Six-Day Bicycle Race

Chicago, Nov. 6—(P)—The team of Walter Diggelman and Hugo Koblet of Switzerland took over the lead early today in the 47th international six-day bike race at the International Amphitheater.

They replaced the Italian-American pair of Cesare Moretti and Rene Cyr who had held the lead since the opening of the grind last Sunday.

Eight of the nine teams remaining in the race are within striking distance of victory after tonight's final sprinting and jamming.

Notre Dame Blasts Indiana Eleven 42-6 Saturday

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 6—(P)—Notre Dame's football team skipped lightly over a muddy field in a 42-6 victory today against Indiana University's five-times beaten Hoosiers.

The Irish failed to score only in the final quarter—thus ending a string of 33 periods in which they had tallied one or more touchdowns.

Halfback Emil (six yard) Sitko softened up the Hoosiers with a series of smashes early in the game. He ran 23 yards for the first Irish touchdown and it was just routing after that.

Five Notre Dame backs crossed the Indiana goal line and Steve Orakko, place-kicker six straight points after touchdown. Bill Gay and Bill Wightkin scored their first points of the season for the Irish. John Laundry got two touchdowns and John Panelli contributed one.

Quarterback Frank Tripucka had a good day for Notre Dame, passing for two touchdowns and handling the ball flawlessly on pitchouts.

A 66-yard kickoff return by Indiana's John McDonnell, coupled with a 15 yard Notre Dame penalty for unnecessary roughness, put I.U. on the Irish seven-yard line on the first play after Notre Dame's first touchdown. The Hoosiers pulled two penalties, missed three passes and lost the ball on downs.

Indiana mostly watched the score pile up until late in the final period. Halfback Del Russell figured in eight straight plays that moved the ball 40 yards for the lone Hoosier touchdown. End Joe Bartkiewicz took a seven-yard pass for the climax.

By quarters:
Notre Dame 14 21 7 0—42

50,000 Expected At Bear-Ram Tilt

Los Angeles, Nov. 6—(P)—Fifty thousand fans are expected in memorabilia collection tomorrow for the revival of the bitter rivalry between the Chicago Bears and the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

The famed Bear line, blasting the way for such passers and ball carriers as Sid Luckman, Johnny Lujack, Bobby Layne, J. R. Boone and Joe Osmanski, could face trouble from a Ram forward wall which stopped the Chicago Cardinal running attack cold except for one quarter a week ago.

Opposing the Bears' triple-play "L-Men" aerial attack will be Jim Hardy in the starting Ram quarterback role.

The Bears, perennial power-house of the league, have won five out of six games and are heavily favored to trim the Rams.

Golden Bears Defeat UCLA

Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 6—(P)—California's Bears roared through another lap toward an undefeated football season and possibly the Rose Bowl today with a 28-13 victory over a hard-fighting university of California at Los Angeles team.

The Golden Bears' eighth triumph in a row unfolded before a crowd of 65,000. The Bears, combining ground power, a few timely passes and breaks, scored in every period.

The Bruins pushed over two touchdowns in the last quarter to change the contest from a rout and provide a fairly close and exciting finish.

Georgia Tech Upset By Tennessee

Atlanta, Nov. 6—(P)—The Tennessee Vols tumbled Georgia Tech from the unbeaten ranks today 13-6, as the Vols' big, fast skirmish line continually operated in the Tech backfield.

A sellout crowd of 38,000 fans at a muddy Grant Field saw Tennessee linemen outwit Tech's and destroy Yellow Jacket passing arm. The light, high-speed Tech backs were forced to run instead of pass. Their fumbles set up one Tennessee score and ended several threats.

The loss was a major upset. Tech being a two-touchdown pick before the Southeastern conference game.

Eliot's Illini Defeat Iowa Gridders 14-0

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 6—(P)—Illinois exploded for two second period touchdowns on Murney Lazier's 56-yard punt return and a 46-yard pass off drive to whip Iowa, 14-0, today.

The Fighting Illini faded somewhat in the second half, but the Hawkeyes were unable to penetrate further than 12 yards from the Illinois goal.

With due credit to Lazier and Fullback Russ Steger, who rammed over from the 1-yard line for the second score, Illinois had splendid help from the passing of Quarterback Bernie Krueger and the punting of Dike Eddleman.

Splendid Passing
Krueger completed six of 11 passes for 120 yards. His tossing set up the second Illinois touchdown.

Eddleman took the starch out of the game Hawkeyes with quick-kicks of 88 and 75 yards.

The contest ruined Iowa's chances to sneak into the Rose Bowl picture. It left them with a 2-3 record and Minnesota still to play in league competition.

In grabbing their second Big Nine win against three defeats, the Illini completely dominated the first half, rolling up their two touchdowns and out-rushing the Hawkeyes, 104 yards to 49.

Lazier's scoring run was beautiful. He grabbed Glenn Drahn's punt on the Illinois 44, sprinted straight down the field close to the sidelines and was in the clear at Iowa's 40.

Steve O'Neill Fired As Manager Of Detroit Tigers

Detroit, Nov. 6—(P)—Steve O'Neill, who gave Detroit one world championship and three American league runner-up clubs in his six-year stay here, was fired today as manager of the Tigers.

He was the seventh major league pilot to lose his job this year.

One of the other six, Stanley "Bucky" Harris, deposed New York Yankees manager, has been rumored as a likely successor to O'Neill.

Other possibilities include Paul Richards, former Tiger catcher who now manages Buffalo in the International league, and Roger "Doc" Cramer, Detroit coach.

An announcement from Detroit general manager Billy Evans said no successor has been chosen. It said O'Neill's contract is not being renewed for 1949 because of a belief "that a change in field management would be desirable."

Evans' statement said the Detroit management "is keenly appreciative" of O'Neill's six years of "loyal and conscientious service."

O'Neill, reached at his home in Cleveland Heights, Ohio, said he had no plans for the future. He said he hadn't "given it a thought" before receiving a telegram from Evans. Shortly before that he had received the news of his dismissal from news-men.

Penn State Upsets Undefeated Penn 13-0 Saturday

Philadelphia, Nov. 6—(P)—Two perfect plays from which Fullback Francis Rogel spun touchdowns from 44 and 13 yards out enabled the rugged Nittany Lions of Penn State to subdue Penn's pumchless Quakers, 13 to 0, before an overflow crowd of 80,000 today.

The defeat at the hands of their traditional rivals knocked the Quakers abruptly from the ranks of the nation's undefeated teams and boosted State's bowl stock out of sight. It was the sixteenth straight game over the past two seasons in which the Lions have escaped defeat.

Penn gained only 28 yards by rushing through State's great defense, led by Paul Kelly and Wally Triplett, and threatened only once to score on the wings of its passing attack in the third period.

Rogel, the offensive star of the game, whirled off his left tackle, found a clear opening through the Penn secondary and whizzed 44 yards for the first score in the second quarter.

Switching signals early in the final period the versatile State machine took to the air and shot to another touchdown in two plays.

On the first one, Elwood Petchel zipped a short pass to Sam Tamburo and Tamburo dodged and raced his way 52 yards to the 13. Petchel then pegged one far into the end zone to Rogel.

Carl Sturges, State's extra point specialist, broke even on his two tries—not that it mattered.

Monmouth, Ill., Nov. 6—(P)—Monmouth College ended its home football season today with a 12-0 Midwest conference victory over Beloit.

Oklahoma Smashes Missouri Eleven In 41-7 Rout

Norman, Okla., Nov. 6—(P)—Shilopy Jack Mitchell and a brutal Oklahoma line powered the so-called Sooners to a 41-7 victory over a bewildered Missouri football team before a record breaking homecoming crowd estimated at 38,500 here today.

The victory was Oklahoma's third in the Big Seven conference against no defeats, and their sixth successive triumph of the campaign.

It was a great battle for two full quarters as Missouri opened the scoring with Dick Braznell smacking over from the one-foot line midway of the opening period. Bob Dawson kicked the point.

The Count
Oklahoma evened the game in the first four minutes of the second quarter on George (Junior) Thomas' four-yard slice through tackle and a perfect placement by Les Ming.

Ming came the third quarter and a touchdown parade that went like this:

Mike Ghannely, Missouri safety, fumbled Darrell Royal's punt. End Bobby Goad recovered on the Tigers' 24-yard line. Mitchell spun through tackle and chased 34-yards for the touchdown. He traveled untouched.

Bob Robinson's punt was blocked by tackle home Paine on the Missouri sixteen. Junior Thomas climaxed the short drive from the two yard line.

Mitchell gathered in Robinson's punt on the Oklahoma 26-yard line, faked to Darrell Royal on a cross-cut and hugged the east side line 74-yards to score.

Last Two TD's
Sophomore fullback Leon Heath ended the third quarter, four-touchdown slaughter with a sweep of four yards around end.

Completely outclassed in the line, Missouri was through for the day, but Oklahoma had one more touchdown coming. Heath, playing with the third and fourth stringers, got it on a 26-yard dash early in the fourth quarter.

Ming kicked five points from placement, missing only on his last try.

Two Grid Contests Scheduled Here During Week

Three Jacksonville football teams provide gridiron activity for home town fans in two local games this week.

The annual J.H.S.-I.S.D. Armistice Day clash opens the card on Thursday afternoon. The game shapes up this year as one of the best between the two outflits in recent seasons.

Then, on Saturday afternoon, the Illinois College Blueboys bid farewell to Jacksonville fans in a CCI contest against Elmhurst on the high school turf. Intense rivalry has developed between I.C. and Elmhurst since the war and this week's tilt promises plenty of fireworks.

Traditional Armistice Day week-end games match additional rivals. Pittsfield's Saukies, needing one more win to clinch an undefeated season and the Illinois Valley conference title, appear at Winchester on Wednesday.

Roodhouse goes to White Hall Thursday for the regular battle between two old rivals of the Ivy loop.

Games on Friday include Waverly at Kincaid, Jerseyville at Pleasant Hill and Greenfield at Carrollton.

Army Wallops Stanford Eleven

New York, Nov. 6—(P)—Army decisively scored its seventh straight victory of the season today by overpowering Stanford 43 to 0 in Yankee Stadium before 46,695.

Army had too many fast backs for the faltering Stanford line—Gil Stephenson, Arnold Galifia, Harold Shultz, Bobby Jack Stuart, and Rudy Schmitt, all making spectacular dashes.

Consentino's 78-yard touchdown in the last period was the longest gain of the game, but Galifia—whose passing was sharp all day—scored on a 41-yard dash, Stuart ripped off 60 yards to tally, and Shultz had a 56-yard run to his credit. Stephenson scored once on a plunge, and set up the touchdown with a 48-yard gain on a shovel pass from Galifia.

Ohio State Beats Pittsburgh Easily In 41-0 Grid War

Columbus, O., Nov. 6—(P)—Ohio State's alert Bucks converted a blocked punt, two pass interceptions and a fumble into quick touchdowns today as they rolled up a 41-0 victory over Pittsburgh's toothless Panthers before 68,966 fans.

All the scoring was concentrated in the second and third periods. The Bucks, with a strong wind at their backs, rolled to three touchdowns in each session.

Had Four In Row
The Panthers, who had won four in a row after dropping the first two games, were stopped in a twice drop in Ohio territory in the second period. They surrendered the ball on downs on the 17 and 21 yard lines.

Ohio marched 37 yards in seven plays for its first marker, Jerry Krall going around end for 24 yards before Fullback Whisler plunged a yard for the first of his two scores.

Two minutes later Dick Slager hit End Tom Watson with a 50-yard pass to the Pitt seven and in two plays Krall was over from the two.

End Jimmy Hague, who booted five of six extra points, blocked Bill Hardisty's punt on the Pitt 24 to set up the third score. Slager lost 17 on an attempted pass, but tossed 27 to Whisler on the next play, and Pandel Savic passed nine to Alex Verdov for the payoff.

Second Half
At the start of the second half, Jerry Amanz intercepted Cecconi's pass on the nine. Whisler went in for the score over tackle.

After the kickoff Sonny Gandee intercepted Bob Lee's pass on the Panther 24 and ran it back for the fifty marker.

The final touchdown came with only a second to play in the third period. Charley Renner fell on Cecconi's fumble on the Panther 21, and George Wertz passed to Hague in the end zone for the six-point.

Ohio had 15 first downs to seven for the Pittsburghers, and outgained them 205 to 87 yards on the ground and 165 to 47 through the air.

Northwestern Nips Wisconsin 16-7, Fails To Impress

Madison, Wis., Nov. 6—(P)—Northwestern kept its Rose Bowl hopes alive by beating Wisconsin 16 to 7 today but looked like anything but a top-flight club in doing it. A capacity crowd of 45,000 saw the game.

The Wildcats won by a safety in the opening quarter and by scoring two touchdowns in the third period. They got into position for the first touchdown after an exchange of punts and a good runback by Loren Day to the Badger 27. From that point out over right tackle for the tally. The second score came after a Wisconsin fumble on the 17. Aschenbrenner went over from the one. Jim Farrar added both extra points with placements.

Northwestern threatened often throughout the first half but was a victim of its own miscues. The Wildcats fumbled on four occasions deep in Wisconsin territory in those periods and added another fumble in the closing half. All were recovered by Wisconsin.

The Badgers, except for a good drive in the late stages when it put together six first downs to go 95 yards, were in trouble frequently. They failed to score after their fine march but recovered a Wildcat fumble a few minutes later from the Northwestern 15 and from that point went on to a touchdown, with Wally Dreyer scoring. Lisle Blackburn kicked the extra point.

A blocked punt by Ray Wietcha, Wildcat center, that was recovered in the end zone by Wisconsin punter T. A. Cox gave Northwestern two points in the opening period.

It was the fifth straight defeat for Wisconsin, who have dropped four of five conference tilts. Northwestern has bagged four of five league games and trails only unbeaten Michigan.

Northwestern 2 0 14 0—16
Wisconsin 0 0 0 7—7

Michigan State Whips Marquette

East Lansing, Nov. 6—(P)—Michigan state powered effortlessly to a 47-0 shutout over Marquette today in the 18th game of the traditional series before 36,436 fans.

Marquette did not threaten once during the game and Michigan State was not forced to punt on the fourth down until the fourth quarter, when a fumble of anonymous fourth stringers took over.

Little George Guerre scored twice as did Jim Blenkhorn, once on a 68-yard ramble, the longest run of the game.

NORMAL BLASTS SOUTHERN

Carbondale, Ill., Nov. 6—(P)—The Southern Illinois Maroons lost their third straight I.L.A.C. football game today, bowing to Illinois State Normal, 48 to 0. The injury-riddled Maroons are defending champions of the conference.

WHEATON LICKED

Wheaton, Ill., Nov. 6—(P)—Two second period touchdowns netted Valparaiso college of Indiana a 14-7 football victory over Wheaton college today.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 6—(P)—William and Mary's one team played mighty North Carolina's offensive and defensive combinations to a standstill to spoil the Tar Heels' perfect record with a 7-7 tie.

Iowa And Illinois Deaf Battle To 6 To 6 Tie Saturday Afternoon

By Robert Merris
Two fine deaf football teams battled to a six to six tie here Saturday afternoon when the Iowa deaf gridgers came from behind in the second half to score after a larger Illinois squad had capitalized on a fumble to mark their lone tally midway in the second quarter. The game had been hailed as an Illinois bid for the national deaf school championship, and marred the perfect record of six straight wins the westenders had compiled this season.

It was a dog eat dog affair all the way with both coaches using the barest minimum of substitutes. Coach Lahn of Iowa—make two replacements due to injuries, and Art Yates spelled right end, Villana, briefly.

Kwiat Leads Hosts
Stanley Kwiat was the big gun of the Illinois offensive, carrying the ball repeatedly for gains of five yards and more, and featuring the Tiger scoring drive midway in the second quarter after an Iowa fumble left them on the visiting team's 11 yard line. Kwiat wiggled the leather four times into the line, finally scoring through his left tackle. A line back for the extra point failed.

The Bobcats came clawing back after taking the kickoff from the Jacksonville team and pished to the Tiger's thirty, where they were stalled momentarily by a stiffening Tiger defense.

Illinois took the ball on downs, but after losing six yards on a fumble, they were forced to kick out of bounds on their own forty.

Stopped On Six
A five yard skirt around end by Sullivan, Iowa fullback, and a pass from Sullivan to Christian, which was good for 20 yards, put the Iowa in scoring position with time rapidly running out. Two quick passes one of them completed, put the Iowans on the Illinois six yard line at the end of the first half.

The Bobcats, after kicking off to Illinois in the second half, stalled the Tiger attack as their forward line repeatedly to snag the back for incessant losses. The Iowans took possession of the ball on their own 35 yard line, and put on a scoring drive which was climaxed by a pass from Sullivan to Covert, standing in the flat, who raced 55 yards to pay dirt. A smash into the line for the point after touchdown was no good.

Stage Comeback
Roaring back, the Tigers rolled up two successive first downs in an attempt to forge ahead in the contest. Stanley Kwiat was shaken on a line plunge, which apparently slowed him somewhat, consequently putting the damper on the Illinois running attack. The Iowans threatened several times in the fourth quarter when Sullivan broke through the center of the line for long gains, but was stopped before passing the host 20 yard line.

Chuck Ortmann Paces Michigan To Easy 35-0 Win

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 6—(P)—Michigan's prize sophomore, end Chuck Ortmann, passed and ran the Wolverines to their 21st straight football triumph today, an easy 35-0 win over undermanned Navy, which now has lost 12 games in a row.

Ortmann, all-around Milwaukee product who stepped into the shoes of the graduated All-America Bob Chappuis, staged one of his finest performances before the third straight sellout throng of 85,938 fans in Michigan Stadium. He connected on one 48-yard touchdown pass to Michigan's brilliant End Dick Rittenburg, plunged across for another Wolverine score and stood out as the best running back on the field.

THE STORY
Time, 1890 Place, New Orleans
Louis Durand, 37, a well-to-do bachelor, has been corresponding with Miss Julia Russell, whom he has never seen. He has proposed marriage and she has accepted. According to her picture, Miss Russell is dark-haired, strong-featured and no longer young. Durand goes down to the dock to meet the boat that is to bring her from St. Louis. He is dumfounded when an exquisite young blond creature introduces herself as Julia. She explains her little deceit by saying she didn't want him to fall for just a pretty face. Durand is enchanted with her and they are married. Certain things puzzle him, however, during their first days together. Julia drinks coffee, although her letters had said she despised coffee. And her complexion alternates mysteriously between flush and pallor. Also, she shows no interest in the curate bird she troubled to bring with her.

VIII
HER trunk was recalled to his mind one day by the very act of his own sitting on it. It was no longer recognizable at sight for a trunk, it had a gaily printed slip cover over it to disguise it, and stood there over against the wall.

It was Sunday, and though they did not go to church, they never failed, in common with all other good citizens, to dress up in their Sunday finery and take their Sunday morning promenade.

He was waiting for her to be ready, and had sat down upon this nondescript surface without looking to see what it was.

She was slowed at the last moment, by difficulties.

"I wore this last week, remember? They'll see it again," She discarded it.

"And this—I don't know about this," She curled her lip slightly. "I'm not very taken with it."

She discarded it as well.

"That looks attractive," he offered cheerfully, pointing at random.

She shrugged off his ignorance. "But this is a weekday dress, not a Sunday one."

He wondered privately, and with a soundless little chuckle, how one told the first from the second, but refrained from asking her.

She sat down now, still further delaying their start. "I don't know what I'll do. I haven't a thing fit to be worn."

This, taken in conjunction with the fact that the room was already littered with dresses, struck him as so funny that he could no longer control himself, but burst out laughing, and as he did so, swung his arm down against the surface he was sitting on, in a clasp of emphasis.

HE felt, through the covering, the unmistakable shape of a pear-shaped trunk lock. And at that moment, he first realized that it was her trunk he was sitting upon. The one she had brought from St. Louis. She had never, suddenly struck him as well, opened it since her arrival.

"What about this?" he asked. And then stood up and stripped the cover off. The initialed "J. R." just below the lock in blood-red paint, stood out conspicuously. "Haven't you anything in here? I should think you would, a trunk this size."

She was suddenly looking, with an almost taut scrutiny, at one of the dresses, holding it upraised before her.

"Oh, no," she said. "Nothing. Only rags."

"How is it I've never seen you open it? You never have, have you?"

She continued to peer at this thing in her hands. "No," she said. "I never have."

"Why not?" he persisted. "Why haven't you?" But with no intent whatever, simply to have an answer.

This time she took note of the question. "I—I can't," she said, somewhat unsurely.

She seemed to intend no further explanation, at least unsolicited, so he asked her: "Why?"

She waited a moment. "It's the key. It's—ah, missing. I haven't got it. I lost it on the boat."

SHE had come over to the trunk while she was speaking, and was rather hastily trying to rearrange the slip cover over it.

"Why didn't you tell me?" he protested heartily, thinking merely he was doing her a service. "I'll have a locksmith come in and make you a new one. It won't take any time at all. Wait a minute, let me look at it—"

He drew the slip cover partly back again, while she almost seemed to be trying to hold it in place in opposition. Again the vivid "J. R." peered forth, but only momentarily.

He thumbed the pear-shaped brass plaque. "That should be easy enough. It's a fairly simple type of lock."

The slip cover, in her own hands, swept across it like a curtain a moment later, blotting out lock and initials alike.

"I'll go out and fetch one in right now," he offered, and started forth for the door. "He can take the impression, and have the job done by the time we return from our—"

"You can't," she called after him with unexpected harshness of voice, that might simply have been due to the fact of her having to raise it slightly to reach him.

"Why not?" he asked.

She let her breath out audibly. "It's Sunday."

He turned in the doorway and came slowly back again, frustrated. "That's true," he admitted. "I forgot."

"I did too, for a moment," she said. And again exhaled deeply. In a way that, though it was probably no more than an expression of annoyance at the delay, might almost have been mistaken for unutterable relief, so misleadingly like it did it sound.

Jacksonville Merchants Honor Morgan's 4-H Members

Scenes At The Morgan County Achievement Day Program

Each year the merchants of Jacksonville cooperate with the Farm Bureau to sponsor 4-H Achievement Day, pay-off day for the boys and girls who have completed one or more projects. Photographed are a few of the presentations made during Saturday's program at the Times theatre.

Emma Jean Fox, a successful poultry raiser, is in the chicken business all over again as Farm Adviser F. H. Garlich presents her with a certificate good for 50 chicks from Swift's.

Members who made excellent records received bonds from various firms in the city. In the second photograph are Leiland Perbix of the Farmers bank, Darrell Roegge and Marvin L. Schuetz of the Elliott State bank. Darrell received a $25 bond from the latter; Marlin Stewart was slated for a similar award from Mr. Perbix, but didn't know anything about it. So he stayed home to harvest the corn crop.

The third picture shows Lawrence Crawford of the Crawford Lumber company and the receivers of the two bonds offered by the firm. They are Virginia Muntman of Jacksonville and Darrell Smith of Alexander.

Bonds, Medals, Prizes For Winners At Annual Achievement Day Show

Jacksonville merchants through their Chamber of Commerce paid tribute Saturday morning to the 4-H club boys and girls of Morgan county and to the leaders who give their time throughout the year to encourage the members "to learn by doing." The Morgan County Farm Bureau-cooperated with the Chamber of Commerce in the presentation of the annual Achievement Day exercises held at the Times theatre.

Home Adviser Mildred Seeman and her assistant, Mrs. Marvin Tholen, made state and county awards to home economics girls who had excelled in food preservation and preparation, sewing, fire prevention, safety and home improvement projects.

Farm Adviser Garlich presented the boys and girls who had successfully completed livestock, poultry and garden projects this season.

Bonds For Excellence
Several Jacksonville concerns gave government bonds to individual members who had achieved superior results in connection with their 4-H work.

Lawrence Crawford of the Crawford Lumber company awarded bonds to Virginia Muntman of the East Side Juniors and to Darrell Smith of the Berea club for the high rank they attained during 1948. Virginia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Muntman, rural route 5, Jacksonville; Darrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith of Alexander.

The Ideal Baking company gave a bond to Mena Schlieker of the Victory club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schlieker of Chapin. The presentation was made by Miss Mary Postelwait, secretary of the company.

Marvin L. Schuetz, farm manager of the Elliott State Bank, awarded a bond to Darrell Roegge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Roegge, rural route 1, Jacksonville. He is a member of the Jay Prairie club.

Leland Perbix, farm manager of the Farmers bank, was on hand to give a bond to Marlin Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stewart and a member of the Pointers club. Marlin was busy at home, hauling in corn.

Wins Cooking Award
Wilma Muntman, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Muntman, won the electric roaster offered by Nesco to the 4-H girl who had shown the most skill in cooking. Emma Jean Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, rural route 5, received the special poultry award for 50 baby chicks given by Swift & Co.

The Marjorie leadership trophy went to Darrell Smith. Most of the club leaders were able to attend the show. Mrs. Harold Stewart of Alexander and Mrs. Edward Ommen were given jewelry pins in recognition of 10 years of work with 4-H youngsters. Mrs. James B. Swain of Sinclair and Mrs. L. E. Wegehoff of Concord received pins denoting five years of service.

Miss Donna Summers of Waverly and Miss Donna Ommen of Chapin were chosen delegates to the 1949 state leadership camp. Alternates named were Wilma Muntman and Marlin Stewart.

R. Karl Baker, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was the presiding officer. Eighty-eight merchandise awards donated by the merchants were distributed among the large crowd.

Speaker Discusses Women's Battle For Equal Rights

Dr. Elsa P. Kimball, professor of sociology at MacMurray College, speaking at the AAUW and the Morgan County League of Women Voters joint meeting Saturday afternoon at the college, discussed the leaders responsible for the success of the equal rights for women movement.

In an examination of the progress made by these women, from the time of the Seneca Falls convention, July 19, 1848, until the passage of the 19th amendment in 1920, Dr. Kimball gave an interesting and authoritative review of their lives and work. Her discussion included such personalities as Elizabeth Cady Stanton, "mother of woman suffrage in the world," Lucretia Mott, Susan B. Anthony, Anna Howard Shaw, Carrie Chapman Catt and other notables of the movement.

Dr. Kimball was presented to the group by the program chairman of the AAUW, Dr. Elizabeth Hastings, professor of English at Illinois College, who was introduced by Mrs. John Ager, AAUW president. Miss Nellie Doying heads the League.

Any person interested in answering the Illinois State Civil Service Commission's need for volunteer monitors in administering future civil service examinations, is asked to report to the president of either group. The date of service will be arranged for the volunteer's convenience.

WRC Prepares Rag Shipment For Veterans
Members of the Woman's Relief Corps met Friday to sew rags to be sent to the Quincy Veterans hospital. These rags are made into rugs by the patients, who are allowed to sell them and keep the profits for themselves.

One of the organization's oldest members, Mrs. Della Fanning, who is 81 years of age, helped in preparing the rags. Others assisting were Mesdames Nannie Mills, Ollie Proffitt, Sarah Harrison, Mary Kimbrell, Nellie Vensel, Sarah Scribner, Florence Hagan, Nora Gruber, Nora Wilder, Anna Hurst and Reva Wright.

Fourteen pounds of rags were prepared for shipment.
